

We are working on proposals to change the BAFF Constitution. This would mean discontinuing the formal company registration to save costs. This involves converting to an unincorporated trust, mirroring the current constitution as much as possible.

Any such changes would be subject to formal approval by the current (full) membership.

We have also been working to upgrade the website, particularly the membership joining system, and a new blog and comments system.

More to follow ...